

HEALTH, SAFETY AND WELFARE POLICY STATEMENT

It is the policy of Trelleborg Applied Technology to conduct all its activities in such a way as to ensure that, so far as is reasonably practicable, the highest achievable health, safety and welfare standards are maintained in respect of employees, visitors, contractors, young persons and the surrounding community who could be affected by Company operations.

The Company holds each Director, Manager, Supervisor, and Employee responsible for taking reasonable care for their own health and safety, and for the safety of other people who may be affected by their acts or omissions. The successful implementation is achieved by complying with the above policy in any area within their control or influence.

The Company will provide and maintain safe and healthy working conditions, equipment and systems of work, together with adequate information, instruction, training and supervision for all employees in order to ensure that the requirements of the above policy are met.

No employee of the Company is authorised to initiate or continue any activity, operation or process which would endanger employees or members of the public. The Senior Director for the Business Unit has overall responsibility for health and safety matters.

Jan Wilson
Director and General Manager
18 July 2007

