

General Terms & Conditions

TRELLEBORG SEALING PROFILES SWEDEN AB GENERAL TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF DELIVERY

The following terms and conditions apply for all transactions between Trelleborg Sealing Profiles Sweden AB ("the Seller") and the Buyer, irrespective of the Buyer's purchasing regulations, unless otherwise has been agreed in writing.

1. QUOTATION AND ENTRY INTO CONTRACT
The Seller's quotation is valid for the period stated therein for acceptance of a response (order) from the Buyer. If the period of validity of the quotation has not been specifically stated, it is limited to 30 days from the quotation date. A contract is deemed to have been entered into only once the Seller has issued a written order confirmation. Only the terms and conditions stated in the order confirmation apply to a purchase contract ("Contract") entered into.
2. GRADUAL DELIVERY
If the Contract relates to gradual delivery, each delivery shall be regarded as a separate sale. Thus, the Buyer is not entitled to cancel the Contract in whole in the event of a delay in a part delivery or fault or failing in a part delivery. If delivery is delayed as a result of a circumstance as stated in Item 13, the Seller is entitled to delay the subsequent deliveries to a corresponding extent. If the Buyer does not supply material, information, data or other documentation at the agreed time, the Seller shall be entitled to delay the deliveries by a reasonable time in view of the circumstances.
3. DELAY
If a party finds that it cannot keep to the agreed timing of a delivery (part delivery) or reception of the goods, the other party shall be informed thereof without delay. If the delay is not a consequence of a circumstance as stated in Item 13 and if the delay turns out to entail significant cost or inconvenience to the party that is not responsible for the delay, the party in question may cancel the Contract in relation to the delayed delivery. The Seller is not liable for damages for any damage caused by the delay. If a delay in delivery arises as a result of a circumstance as stated in Item 13 or as a result of any action or omission on the part of a buyer, the delivery time shall be extended by a period that may be considered reasonable in view of the circumstances in the case.
4. CONTROL
If an agreement on more detailed delivery control has not been reached between the Seller and the Buyer, the goods shall be subject to the control the Seller normally carries out before delivery of such goods. Any delivery control carried out by the Seller does not absolve the Buyer in any case from the Buyer's general duty of inspection on receipt of the goods. The Buyer is obliged to inform the Seller in writing immediately and no later than 30 days after receipt of any fault or failing in the goods that the Buyer has noticed or should have noticed, on pain of the Buyer otherwise losing any rights accruing to him as a result of the fault or failing. In relation to a fault or failing that may have arisen in conjunction with transport and that can be established without difficulty, it is incumbent upon the Buyer, on pain as stated above, to inform the transporter in question and the Seller in writing of the fault or failing immediately after reception.
5. QUANTITY
The agreed quantity may be exceeded or fall short by 10 %. The quantity delivered shall form the basis for charging. The agreed quantity is understood to be the total agreed quantity, irrespective of whether part deliveries are used.
6. PACKAGING AND DELIVERY LOCATION/RISK OF THE GOODS
The prices stated by the Seller refer to unpackaged goods. In terms of packaging of the goods and the costs therefor, what has been agreed in the Contract shall apply. Unless otherwise has been agreed, the prices stated apply free the Seller's factory or the location where the Seller stores the agreed goods. The trading terms used shall be interpreted according to Incoterms 2020 (issued by the International Chamber of Commerce).
7. GUARANTEE (LIABILITY FOR FAULT)
The Seller is liable for faults in material, construction and/or manufacture for a guarantee period of twelve (12) months from the date of delivery (handing over). If goods delivered should turn out to be subject to such fault, the Seller is obliged at its discretion to make a replacement delivery, repair or rework the goods. It is incumbent upon the Buyer immediately upon learning about a fault according to the first paragraph to inform the Seller thereof and do whatever may rest upon him in order to facilitate the Seller to fulfil its obligations. Within Sweden, replaced, repaired or reworked goods are delivered free to the original place of delivery. In the event of export delivery, replaced, repaired or reworked goods is delivered FOB a Swedish shipping port. Unless otherwise has been agreed, the Buyer shall bear the cost and take the risk of the return freight of faulty goods to the Seller's factory. Replaced, repaired or reworked goods is guaranteed on the same terms and conditions and subject to the same prerequisites as apply for the original goods, however the Seller's guarantee undertakings for replaced, repaired or reworked goods does in no case apply for longer than eighteen (18) months from the start of the original guarantee period. If new goods are delivered in exchange for faulty goods within the framework for the guarantee, the Seller is entitled to debit the Buyer for the goods delivered in exchange the price of which has been reduced in view of the service the originally delivered goods has provided. The above guarantee undertakings do not include any promise regarding the useful life of goods delivered. Information relating to weight, dimensions, capacity, price, technical and other data in catalogues, prospectuses, circulars, advertisements, image material and pricelists apply without any undertaking. Such information is binding only to the extent the Contract expressly refers to it. Over and above what has been stated, the Seller does not have any liability to pay compensation for direct or indirect consequential damage and loss due to a fault in goods delivered.
8. PRICE ADJUSTMENT
If a fixed price has been agreed and if, following entry into the Contract, any export or import fee, tax or other similar duty is imposed or changed, or if the raw material prices or exchange rates change, the Seller may change the price to a similar extent even if the imposition of the duty or the change in the raw material price or exchange rate was not taken into account in the Contract.
9. VALUE ADDED TAX
The agreed price does not include value added tax
10. PAYMENT
Payment shall be received by the Seller no later than the due date. After the due date, interest on late payment is charged, calculated according to the interest rate stated on the invoice as from the due date of the invoice until payment has been received. Administration/invoicing and reminder fees are charged. If the Buyer fails to receive the goods on the due date for a reason for which the Seller is not responsible, payment shall still be made as if delivery had been made according to the Contract.
11. OWNERSHIP RESERVATION
Goods delivered remain the Seller's property until they have been paid for in full. Acceptance or other undertakings are not considered as payment until fully redeemed.

12. INSOLVENCY, ETC.
If there is reasonable cause to assume that the Buyer will not fulfil his payment obligation, the Seller is entitled to demand cash payment or for acceptable security to be offered. If this is not done without delay, the Seller is entitled to cancel the Contract, without any liability for damages, in relation to goods not delivered.
13. GROUNDS FOR EXEMPTION (FORCE MAJEURE)
"Force Majeure" shall mean any and all events beyond the reasonable control of a Party including, without limitation, strikes, work stoppages, lockouts or circumstances arising from the threat thereof; acts of God, states or a public enemy, terrorism, cyber-attack, war, hostilities, riots, civil disorder, insurrection, embargo, export control and sanctions laws and regulations, pandemic, governmental actions (whether informal or formal government acts). However, if the Buyer cancels the Contract, he shall be liable to take over from the Seller at a reasonable price both materials acquired to fulfil the delivery and any goods completed before written notice of the cancellation reached the Seller. A party is not liable for damages in the event of a cancellation of the Contract in full or in part due to a circumstance as stated in this Item.
14. EXPORT CONTROL AND SANCTIONS COMPLIANCE
The Buyer warrants that: (i) it will not export, re-export, re-sell, supply or transfer the goods to any destination or party subject to UN, EU, UK or US trade sanctions and/or embargos; (ii) it will comply with all applicable export and sanctions laws; (iii) it will include the same terms in its dealings with its customers; and (iv) it agrees to fully indemnify the Seller for all costs, expenses, liabilities, losses, damages, claims, proceedings (including, without limitation legal fees) incurred or awarded against the Seller arising out of or in connection with any breach of this Item whether such breach occurs directly or indirectly, with or without the knowledge of the Seller. The Seller has the right to terminate the Contract immediately and without penalty if it reasonably considers: (i) the Buyer has breached this Item; or (ii) performance of any aspect of this item by the Buyer exposes the Seller to the risk of contravening any sanctions or any sanctions undertakings that it has given to its customers, lenders and other stakeholders.
15. MODELS, FORMS AND OTHER TOOLS
In the event special models, forms and other tools are required for the manufacturing of the goods, the Buyer shall be charged the cost thereof, on which an agreement shall be reached between the parties before manufacture is done. Unless otherwise is agreed, such models, forms and other tools constitute the property of the Seller, but may not be used for anybody else without the Buyer's permission. If the Buyer cancels the Contract due to a circumstance as stated in Items 3 or 13 and relating to the Seller's obligations, the Buyer is entitled to use such models, forms and other tools produced for the Buyer in order for another entity to manufacture the remaining number of items as per the cancelled Contract. The foregoing applies with reservation for such right of use not applying in the event the design or construction of such models, forms or other tools discloses some specific know-how or other manufacturing technology company secret belonging to the Seller. During the period when the Buyer in the aforementioned case is entitled to use the models, forms and other tools, the Buyer shall be responsible for these and shall return them to the Seller in their original condition. Compensation for the right to use shall be agreed in each individual case. Forms, tools, etc. shall be stored by the Seller, who is responsible for the maintenance costs for a period of two years after the latest delivery. Once these two years have passed, the Seller is entitled to scrap or otherwise dispose of these forms, tools, etc. A prerequisite for this is, however, that the Seller has informed the Buyer in writing thereof, and that the Buyer has not made any objection thereto within one month. If the Buyer wishes the Seller to store such tools for a longer period than the above-mentioned two years, the Seller shall be entitled to reasonable remuneration for care and insurance. During the period the Seller stores forms and other tools, the Seller shall keep these insured against fire.
16. PAYMENT TERMS FOR TOOLS
Payment for forms and other tools shall be paid by the Buyer in the manner and at the time stated in the agreement between the parties. If provisions governing this are lacking, then payment shall be made net in cash in conjunction with outcome samples having been delivered to and approved by the Buyer.
17. METAL PARTS AND OTHER INHERENT DETAILS
If metal parts or other goods shall be included in the articles ordered and thereby be supplied by the Buyer, these details shall be delivered free to the Seller's factory in the quantities and at the times stated by the Seller. Such details shall be delivered with a 10 % excess quantity in order to compensate for cassation. Metal parts and other details shall be made according to the agreed measurements and tolerances so that they fit in the forms, and the Buyer is also responsible in other respects for ensuring they are suitable for their purpose. The Buyer is responsible for direct costs incurred by the Seller as a result of delays or faults in the delivery of the metal parts.
18. PATENT, REGISTERED DESIGN, COPYRIGHT, ETC.
Both in the event of delivery of drawings, models or other templates provided by the Buyer and in the event the Seller undertakes the construction work, the Buyer accepts all responsibility for any infringement of third-party rights due to a patent, registered design, copyright or similar. The Buyer is obliged to compensate the Seller for all costs and damage that the Seller may suffer through such infringement or any dispute thereabout. For export sales, the Seller is relieved of responsibility and compensation liability for any infringement in third party rights to a patent, registered design, copyright or similar. The foregoing also applies when one of the Seller's products is included as a component or input goods in another product.
19. CONSTRUCTIONS
If products are delivered in accordance with special proposals, drawings or templates, the Seller's liability is reserved to the goods delivered being made in accordance with this documentation. Unless a separate agreement has been reached, the Seller is not responsible for ensuring the goods delivered are suitable for the usage purposes originally or later intended by the Buyer. Proposals, drawings, descriptions, models or other templates, which are provided by one party to the other or an offer recipient remain the providing party's property and may not be used in any respect nor be disclosed to any third party without the providing party's permission.
20. OUTCOME SAMPLES
If the Buyer approves outcome samples without qualification, the Seller will not later accept any objections, provided the goods delivered corresponds to the approved outcome samples.
21. TOLERANCES AND GAUGES
If no separate agreement has been reached relating to tolerances, the tolerance requirements normally applied by the Seller shall apply for such goods. Any change to the tolerance requirements after the Contract has been entered into requires written agreement between the parties. Special gauges and fixtures, prescribed by the Buyer for control of completed articles, shall be supplied by the Buyer.
22. APPLICABLE LAW AND DISPUTE RESOLUTION
The Contract shall be governed by the substantive laws of Sweden. a. Any dispute, controversy or claim arising out of or in connection with the Contract, or the breach, termination or invalidity thereof, shall be finally settled by arbitration in accordance with the arbitration rules of the Stockholm Chamber of Commerce Arbitration Institute. Place of arbitration shall be Stockholm, Sweden, and the language to be used in the arbitral proceedings shall be English.
