Release Immediate: June 2012

Trelleborg TM Blue; the newest option on AGCO tractors

Trelleborg agricultural tires have been selected as the premium offering for all Challenger and Massey Ferguson High Horse Power Tractors manufactured at the AGCO plant located in Jackson, Minnesota, U.S.

“This collaboration between two leading companies in the agricultural business is an excellent opportunity to provide customers in North America with state of art technology and service,” says Andrea Masella, Marketing Manager of Agricultural and Forestry Tires, Trelleborg North America. “Farmers are becoming extremely interested in the topic of sustainable farming. Trelleborg’s TM Blue™ technology offers the highest respect for the environment as well as superior productivity and lower fuel consumption”.

The TM Blue™ concept includes a wide set of techniques, patents, solutions and procedures introduced by Trelleborg to optimize the use of natural resources, thereby preserving nature, respecting soil, reducing fuel consumption and emissions.
